VideoLAN Dev Days '09

A Multimedia Conference that frees the cone in you!

Friday, December 18, 2009 - Sunday, December 20, 2009
Paris, France

We would like to welcome you to the second edition of the VideoLAN Dev Days.
This set of meetings, conference, presentations, unconference, lunches and dinners are made by and for YOU, the VideoLAN community.
Therefore, the success of those days depends only on YOU.

JB Kempf

We would like to thank our sponsors:
Nota Bene: all the events of the schedule are open to everyone.

However, many of them can lack interest if you are not part of the VideoLAN or open-source multimedia communities. Therefore, the events that are more open to everyone are marked with underlines.
